Expressing the sense of the Entertainment Industries Council Trustees for their concern over the nation's health and well being, and urging all facets of the entertainment industry to communicate to audiences accurate health information

RESOLUTION

Whereas, the growing incidents of a variety of health risks presents a clear and present danger to our society;

Whereas, efforts to inform the public about health issues need vigilance;

Whereas, the entertainment industry of the United States comprising television, movies, theater, radio, video and audio recordings, interactive media and other communications means, has extraordinary ability to reach diverse audiences; Now, therefore, be it

Resolved, That—

- (1) The Entertainment Industries Council Trustees commend those members of the entertainment industry who are working to use the substantial influence and resources of the entertainment industry to communicate effectively accurate health information to audiences; and
- (2) The Entertainment Industries Council Trustees further commends Entertainment Industries Council program activities that serve as a bridge between the entertainment industry, public interest groups, government agencies and Congress and that represent our industry's contributions to address vital health and social issues.
