

Entertainment Industries Council

—Encouraging the Art of Making a Difference

Rebecca Jackson Program Assistant

Rebecca began working with EIC as an intern in 2010 as an undergrad student, where she assisted in the planning of the 14th Annual Prism Awards in Los Angeles. Previously, she worked as an interpreter in healthcare facilities. She has been with EIC since October 2011.

Rebecca has worked extensively with EIC in health and social issues including mental health, addiction, intellectual disabilities and diabetes. She coordinated the inaugural Media and Mental Health Awards in Pittsburgh, PA in November, 2011.

Rebecca has her Bachelor of Science in Global and Community Health from George Mason University with a minor in Psychology.