

Entertainment Industries Council

—Encouraging the Art of Making a Difference

Shawn King
Administration/Assistant to the President and CEO
Entertainment Industries Council, Inc.

Shawn King has been with the Entertainment Industries Council, Inc (EIC) since 2007 where she serves as the Executive Assistant to the President and CEO of the organization. Her responsibilities include administration and IT development where she possesses extensive knowledge on computer systems and structures. Since 2008 she has accepted responsibility for the planning and web redesign, updates and overall management of EIC's two websites, www.eiconline.org and www.prismawards.com.

Shawn also establishes specific project web landing pages for EIC sites. She has provided web content to Local TV stations engaged in EIC projects.

Shawn is part of the EIC event strategy team responsible for local community based forums and national events in LA and DC.